21. CASUAL VACANCY:

If the office of any elected Trustees is vacated before his term of office will expire in the normal course, the resulting casual vacancy may be filled by the Board at a Meeting of the Board by nominating a person who is qualified to fill up that seat in the Board in the normal course. Any person so appointed shall hold office only up to the date up to which the Trustee in whose place he is appointed would have held office, if it had not been vacated as aforesaid.

22. RECOMPENSE TO TRUSTEES:

The Trustees will not be entitled to receive any remuneration, but the Trustees may reimburse themselves all expenses actually incurred by them in connection with the Trust or their duties relating thereto.

23. PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD:

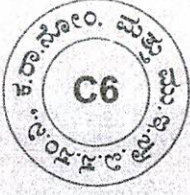

The meetings of the Board of the Trustees shall be held at least once in every four months. The Trustees may meet as often as may be necessary for the conduct of business of the Trust. The President of the Trust shall preside at the meetings of the Trust. In his absence the Vice President and in their absence any member of the Board elected for the day by the members present for the meeting shall preside over the meetings. The Board may meet for dispatch of business, adjourned and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit. A Trustee may at anytime request the Honorary Secretary or the President to summon a meeting of the Board. The question arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by the majority of votes. No Trustees shall have more than one vote at any of the meetings of the Board. However, a Trustee may or may not vote or any matter. In case of equalities of votes the President of the Board shall have a second or a casting vote. The continuing Trustees may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the quorum required for conducting a meeting by any reason whatsoever, the Trustee or Trustees may act for the purpose of nominating new trustees.
